Tony Sykora Elected President of the Alberta Catholic School Trustees' Association

Edmonton, AB - At its Annual General meeting on November 19, 2011, the Alberta Catholic School Trustees' Association elected Mr. Tony Sykora as President. Tony has served as Vice-President for the past two years. Tony is currently is the Chair of the Board of Trustees at Elk Island Catholic Schools (EICS).

"This endorsement by the ACSTA is a clear recognition of Tony's successful record as a trustee. He has an outstanding commitment to Catholic education as well as the skills and willingness to serve at the provincial level," said Dr. Garry Andrews, Acting Superintendent, EICS. "We congratulate Tony on his election as President and trust that our community members will also extend their appreciation and best wishes."
