1. Teachers who receive or collect money from any source shall either keep it on their person until they rightfully dispose of it, or shall turn it over to the principal, or principal designate, for safekeeping.
2. Teachers or others who suffer losses for themselves or others by failure to observe this policy will be expected to bear those losses personally.
3. Teachers shall be responsible for safekeeping any property taken from a student as a result of breach of school rules. If such goods are lost or stolen after being taken from the student, liability for such loss will rest with the teacher.
