

Protocol for Public Concerns: The school is always the starting point towards resolution. Most concerns can be resolved through communication and collaboration with the school. However, if required, next steps are detailed below.

Central Learning Services has various team members to assist the public with resolving concerns including the Office of the Superintendent. If an appeal is applicable, the concern may go to the Board of Trustees.