Catholic (schools) offer an approach to education that is committed to the full development of the whole person. However, they are also called upon to offer, with full respect for the freedom of each person and using the methods appropriate to the scholastic environment, the Christian belief, that is, to present Jesus Christ as the meaning of life, the cosmos and history. Jesus began to proclaim the good news to the 'Galilee of the people', a crossroads of people, diverse in terms of race, culture and religion. This context resembles today's world.

(Pope Francis, in his World Report on improving Catholic education)
