  - Create lesson plans, assignments, assessments, and instructional materials that support language acquisition and cultural understanding.
  - Incorporate a variety of multimedia resources, including videos, audio recordings, interactive activities, and reading materials.
  - Engage students with diverse learning styles and adapt instructional methods accordingly.
- Online Program Delivery:
  - Implement the FSL curriculum through an online learning platform (Canvas)
  - Develop a variety of digital content.
  - Develop interactive and engaging learning experiences through discussions, group activities, and individual support.
- Assessment and Evaluation:

- Design formative and summative assessments to monitor student progress and adjust instruction as needed.
  - Provide timely and constructive feedback to students on their performance and language development.
  - Maintain accurate records of student progress and report regularly to students and parents.
- Professional Development:
  - Be current with best practices in online education and FSL instruction.
  - Participate in professional development opportunities and collaborate with colleagues to enhance the online FSL program.
  - Implement new teaching strategies and technologies to improve student outcomes.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Education, French.
- Valid teaching certification with a specialization in French as a Second Language.
- Experience teaching FSL at the secondary level (10-20-30) is preferred.
- Proven experience in curriculum development and instructional design for online learning.
- Strong proficiency in French and English, both written and spoken.
- Familiarity with online learning platforms and educational technology tools.
- Excellent communication, organizational, and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team in a remote environment.
- Creative, innovative, and adaptable approach to teaching and learning.
- Experience with differentiated instruction and inclusive education practices.
- Knowledge of the latest trends in language education and digital pedagogy.
- Experience in a remote teaching or online education setting.
