Brad and his wife Michelle raised their four children in Sherwood Park where their kids all attended Elk Island Catholic Schools. They are active parishioners of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, and they served in the music ministry for a number of years.

Brad has his Bachelors of Education (B.Ed) from the University of Alberta, a Graduate Diploma in Religious Education (GDRE), and a Masters Degree in Religious Education (MRE) from Newman Theological College where he was also awarded the prestigious Emmaus Award at his MRE Convocation. Brad was also awarded the Alberta Distinguished Leadership Award from the Council for School Leadership of the Alberta Teachers' Association in 2017.

Brad taught with Edmonton Catholic Schools for 38 years, retiring this past year. His teaching experience includes assignments at the elementary, Junior High and Senior High School levels. He has served on numerous division committee initiatives over his tenure. Brad's leadership experience includes Assistant Principal Assignments at Austin O'Brien, and St. Joseph high schools. He served as Principal at St. Nicholas Junior High, St. Joseph High School and Archbishop O'Leary High School.

He is extremely passionate about the blessings the Catholic School experience offers to our children in their formative years. Brad feels it is essential for our teachers to be supported in their role as Catholic educators. He is passionate about supporting teachers as they permeate their faith in all aspects of their teaching within our schools. Brad is a strong advocate for publicly funded Catholic Education in Alberta and wants to have the opportunity to extend this support in the role of Trustee. He eagerly looks forward to the opportunity to serve as Trustee for Elk Island Catholic Schools.
