

HARASSMENT

Background

The Division is committed to providing and promoting a learning and working environment which continually fosters respect for the dignity and well being of all employees, students, trustees, parents and volunteers. Such individuals have a right to an environment free from discriminating, threatening, and personal harassing, including sexual harassing behaviours. Therefore, harassment in the learning and working environment will not be tolerated and is strictly prohibited.

The Division affirms its Catholic faith values and specifically its commitment to human rights as outlined by the Alberta Human Rights Commission and thus will not tolerate actions of harassment. The Division is also committed to the investigation of reported incidents of harassment in a timely manner and the taking of any necessary action(s) or remedies as a result of an investigation.

Definitions

Personal harassment – is any unwelcome behaviour, conduct or communication, directed intentionally or unintentionally at an individual that is offensive to that individual and is based on the rights identified in the Alberta Human Rights Act, including, but not limited to, race, religious beliefs, colour, gender, age, physical disability, mental disability, ancestry, place of origin, marital status, source of income, family status or sexual orientation. Personal harassing behaviour may include but is not limited to threats, intimidation, ostracism, offensive gestures, offensive remarks or jokes, demeaning or humiliating actions or behaviour that supports a hostile or poisonous environment.

The test in determining if an action is harassing is whether a reasonable person knows or ought to know that the behaviour would be considered unwelcome or inappropriate by the recipient. Such an action may be a single event or may involve a continuing series of incidents. It may involve the abuse of authority or position, or it may involve relations among co-workers and affiliated personnel. Personal harassment however does not include the appropriate exercising of an individual's supervisory authority.

Sexual harassment – is any unwelcomed behaviour, conduct or communication, directed intentionally or unintentionally at an individual which is sexual in nature which directly or indirectly affect or threaten in an adverse manner a person's job security, prospects, promotion, earnings, or working conditions and includes but is not limited to unwelcomed physical contact (e.g. patting, pinching, rubbing, grabbing), unwelcome remarks or compromising invitations or requests, verbal abuse or display of suggestive pictures, leering, whistling, innuendoes, jokes, demands for sexual favors, stalking, embarrassing, suggestive or threatening language, displays of pornographic materials, sexting, or behaviour that supports a hostile or poisonous environment.

Working and learning environment – is the immediate school or school jurisdiction work site and may also include;

- A playground,
- A school bus,
- Any school or work related social activities,
- Any school or work related travel and field trips,
- Any settings where the individuals involved are engaged in work related or school related activity such as field placement or a cooperative educational work term, and
- The use of electronic or digital media such as telephone, fax, e-mail, network computers and internet communications at any time.

Hostile or poisonous environment – is a learning and working environment in which the actions of one (1) or more people may not be directed at any one person in particular but contribute to an atmosphere which directly or indirectly affects a person's ability to work or learn effectively.

Complainant – is a person who has reported a situation that appears to be a form of harassment related to the work and learning environment.

Alleged harasser – is a person accused of any above form of harassment related to the work and learning environment.

Harasser – is a person who, as a result of an investigation, has carried out any harassing behaviour.

 - 3.1 An employee or student who considers that s/he has been subjected to harassment in the learning or working environment by a person who is not a student, employee, parent or volunteer for the Division, is to seek the advice of his/her immediate supervisor.
 - 3.2 The supervisor will take whatever action is deemed appropriate to ensure that the Division fulfills its responsibility to support and assist the individual who has been subjected to such alleged harassment.

4. It is the responsibility of all supervisory personnel to inform themselves and to make their employees, students, volunteers and visitors aware of this administrative procedure.
5. It is the responsibility of all employees, students, parents, volunteers, and visitors to help maintain a harassment-free, working and learning environment through, but not limited to, participating in education programs, reducing incidents of harassment by practicing incidents of prevention and reporting incidents of harassment as outlined in these procedures.
6. Where an employee or student believes that a fellow employee or student has experienced or is experiencing harassment in the learning or working environment, and reports this belief to his/her immediate supervisor or Principal, as the case may be, the supervisor or Principal shall meet with the person who is said to have been subjected to harassing behaviours in the learning or working environment and shall take such steps as are appropriate under this administrative procedure up to and including referral of the complaint to the Superintendent.
7. In the absence of a specific complaint, the Superintendent may initiate an independent investigation where:
 - 7.1 There is a pattern of inquiries or complaints over which time suggests the existence of a specific problem which has been identified but not corrected;
 - 7.2 There is reason to believe that a broader, systemic problem exists in the learning and working environment which causes, contributes to or encourages harassment;
 - 7.3 As a result of an investigation, a specific complaint is not supported but there is reasonable evidence that a broader systemic problem exists; or
 - 7.4 In any other circumstances the superintendent deems it appropriate.
8. Any retaliation against an individual for:
 - 8.1 Invoking this administrative procedure whether on their own behalf or on behalf of another individual;

12. Harassment inquiries or complaints are confidential and may only be disclosed to investigate and respond to a complaint and to advise the alleged harasser about the complaint and the identity of the complainant. Any unauthorized disclosure of confidential information relating to a harassment complaint may result in disciplinary action.
13. If a harassment complaint is filed in good faith, and the complainant is an employee, no documentation will be placed in the complainant's file, regardless of the outcome. However, any employee who knowingly and willfully submits a complaint based on false allegations shall be subject to disciplinary action and documentation shall be retained on his/her personnel file.
14. If an investigation determines that a complaint falsely accused another of any form of harassment, knowingly or in a malicious or vindictive manner, the complainant may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal, or legal action for an employee or suspension or expulsion from school for a student.
15. The Superintendent shall ensure that this administrative procedure is widely publicized and distributed among all supervisory personnel and staff members.
16. This administrative procedure does not affect an individual's right to file a complaint or to respond to a complaint with the Alberta Human Rights Commission or to seek other redress as may be provided by law, or by an employee's union or association. Complaints filed with the Alberta Human Rights Commission must be received within one (1) year of the incident. If circumstances warrant it, a charge of assault may be filed with the police.

17. Informal Resolution

If an employee, student, volunteer or visitor believes they are being harassed, s/he is to:

- 17.1 Immediately inform the alleged harasser of the unwelcome behaviour and tell the alleged harasser to stop. This can be done verbally or in writing stating disapproval of the alleged harasser's behaviour and/or actions. Individuals who believe they have been the subject of harassment have a responsibility to make their objection known to the alleged harasser. Individuals can seek the support of their immediate supervisor, union or association representative as to how to proceed.
- 17.2 If not comfortable confronting the alleged harasser, an individual may contact a colleague and/or supervisor to provide informal intervention towards an acceptable resolution of the situation. Students may obtain advice or assistance regarding strategies designed to address individual or peer harassment by contacting a teacher, a counsellor or the Principal. The use of informal intervention is not a prerequisite to seeking a formal resolution.
- 17.3 Keep a record. Whether an informal process or a formal process is carried out, a written record of dates, times, places, the nature of the behaviour and the names of any people who may have witnessed the incidents is to be kept.
